1. At the Deputies' Meeting:

25X1A1a

a. We discussed Project [REDACTED] and it was agreed that we would not request [REDACTED] from the Reserve.

b. We also discussed briefly the necessity of submitting our crystal ball estimate for our Fiscal Year 1963 Budget. Mr. Bissell, of course, was unhappy about having to do this but has turned in an estimate which would increase the DD/P Area by some [REDACTED]. After some considerable discussion he agreed to supply us with some broad justifications.

2. Jim Garrison reported that [REDACTED] now proposes to put the Development Projects Division in the new building and we simply do not have enough space to accommodate his requirements. I told him to get his facts together and submit them to me at an early date.

3. I talked to Gordon Arneson, Department of State, about the NIS Program. State is most reluctant to reclamor in the Senate for fear of offending Mr. Rooney. I told him that I had talked to the Director about this on three occasions and that he was insistent that State try to get the money put back in its budget.
